THE BUDGET. Meeting of Citizens at the Cotton Exchange to Protest Against the Alteration by the Legislature.

Resolutions of Protest—Speeches by Judges Clapp, Morgan and Estes and Others—The Schools Ignored.

What was said and done by the meeting of the Poor—Mr. Furstenheim's Timely and Generous Speech.

The following call for a citizens' meeting was put on the boards of the Cotton Exchange yesterday.

A citizens' meeting will be held this afternoon, at 3 o'clock, to consider the action of the State Legislature regarding the budget of Taxing-District taxes for 1885-86.

In response to this call a very large meeting of the membership of the Exchange, and a large number of prominent citizens assembled at that hour, among whom were the following names:

President Hadden presided. The Hon. D. W. Hadden, president of the Exchange, presided over the meeting.
